President Robert A. Falconer,
The University of Toronto,
Toronto, Ontario.

My dear President Falconer:-

I understand that you are to lecture in Syracuse University on Thursday evening, March the 5th, on "Moral Standards in the Apostolic Church".

I write to invite you to give the same lecture in this Seminary the following morning, March 6th, at 11 o' clock. You can then take a train which will get you into Toronto a little after nine o'clock in the evening. Possibly you may be able to get there sooner. I shall be glad to hand you a small honorarium for this service. We want to see and hear you here. We have one hundred fifty students in this institution. Doctor George Cross, our professor of Theology, knows you, and is a graduate of your University, as I am. I shall be glad to hear from you at your early convenience. Hoping to see you here, I am,

Sincerely yours,

J. W. A. Stewart

Rev. Professor J. W. A. Stewart,

Rochester Theological Seminary.

My dear Professor Stewart:

It would give me great pleasure to visit Rochester after leaving Syracuse, if I can make connections and arrive in Toronto on Saturday morning. Would it be possible for me to leave Syracuse on Thursday night after my lecture or to take an early morning train on Friday morning and reach Rochester in time? I appreciate the honour of being asked to address your Seminary, and if we can make arrangements I shall be most happy to do so and renew our acquaintance. With kind regards to yourself and to Professor Cross,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

President Robert Falconer, LL.D.,
University of Toronto,
Toronto, Ont.

My dear President Falconer:-

Your letter of January 29th is before me. Professor von Dobschuetz left Syracuse yesterday morning about eight o'clock by trolley-road, and arrived here in plenty of time to lecture at eleven o'clock. You can do the same, or you can come by the New York Central Railroad, after your lecture on Thursday night in Syracuse. If you will advise me by which way you will come, I will see that you are met upon your arrival. I am very glad that you can come to us.

I think we should like to have the lecture announced for you for Syracuse. If you prefer to give some other lecture here, kindly let me know the subject. You can leave here on the New York Central at 4:03, Friday afternoon, get the T. H. & B. out of Buffalo at 6 P. M., and arrive in Toronto a little after 9 P. M. Friday.

I am,

Sincerely yours,

J. W. A. Stewart

Professor J. A. A. Stewart,
Rochester Theological Seminary.

My dear Professor Stewart:

I shall be glad to repeat
at Rochester the lecture that I am to give at Syracuse.

If you will allow me to decide whether I shall come over on Thursday night or on Friday morning, I will let you have my decision later.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

March 20th, 1914

Dr. J. W. A. Stewart,
Baptist Theological Seminary,
Rochester.

My dear Dr. Stewart:

I got home after a very pleasant day spent in Rochester, and found all well on Friday night. I look back with much pleasure to my visit to your Seminary and your great kindness to me. You have a splendid equipment, and I am sure doing very important work. I hope that Mrs. Stewart's health is not giving you undue anxiety.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

May 22nd, 1914

Dr. J. W. A. Stewart,

Dean, Rochester Theological Seminary.

My dear Dr. Stewart:

It is extremely kind of you to ask me to return next autumn and deliver a lecture at the Seminary. It would be a great pleasure for me to go back, but I feel confident that I shall not have time between this and the autumn to prepare such a lecture as it would be worth my while delivering. I am going to Europe in a few weeks from now, shortly after the commencement, and on my return in August I leave for the West and do not expect to be here until the middle of September. After that there are so many things to be done in preparation for the new term that I know I cannot get the time to read anything. Allow me to assure you, however, that I appreciate the request.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
